HARLEM'S FAST RACING.

Harlem racing was of the usual quality but the crowd was greater than the ordinary one because of the institution known as "Ladies Day." The weather was as hot as any of the past three weeks and the blazing sun pouring into the grandstand caused the recurrence of the remark "I wish they had built the grandstand on the other side of the track notwithstanding the fact that the dead in the cemeteries might have been disturbed." Surely, the sexton is apt to have much work through the lack of shade afforded to the patrons of Harlem. The track was in as fine condition as sun and excellent care can warrant.

Sangamon, a horse pronounced by "Brown Dick" "too mean to look you in the face," was made an even money favorite in a lot of thirteen, many of which have not won a race this year. Tommy Burns rode the favorite, ran through the bunch on the inside soon after flag fall, and not headed, Sangamon won handily from Carrie F., who got away third and was always the contender. May Fern broke away second, but didn't last long. Ella Penzance, always well up, finished third, and closely behind her came Summer Sea and Millie M. This quintet beat all others away off. Sangamon's best performance in Chicago was a second to Ramiro II. at the Harlem spring meeting.

Bad handicapping did not deter Louis Ezell from starting his stake filly Espionage for the second race, although she was giving so good a colt as Batten 15 pounds. Ezell's friends backed the filly when her price had risen to 6 to 1, so that she went to the post at 4 to 1. Batten was always as low as even money, the talent either landing on him or on Canace for a place. To a splendid start the entire lot held together in a bunch for the first sixteenth, Boney Boy in the lead at first, then being displaced by Batten on whom Burns said "Good bye boys" and ran off with the purse. At the far turn Excursion dropped out of it. Boney Boy was second into the home stretch, but soon was killed off by Canace who ran to the wire easily second, while Miss Marks, coming from far behind at the last eighth, just managed to get third money. Espionage, trying gamely, was sunk by the weight.

Found jumped to the front to a good start for all but Pacemaker, and up the back stretch led Don Orsino by two open lengths, St. Alfonses D. third, heading the bunch several lengths away. Found was caught by Don Orsino at the last three-sixteenths post although Burns had to ride hard to catch up. Once alongside, however, Tommy took a nice hold on the favorite, waiting for Found to quit, and Huffman's filly stopping gradually. Don Orsino won with something to spare. Nathanson gave St. Alfonses D. a tussle for the third money but was beaten.

For the fourth time of the day, the favorite won, but Abuse was ridden by Bloss, whereas Tommy Burns had piloted Sangamon, Batten and Don Orsino. Abuse outran his field from the start and was not headed. The second place was won by George H. Ketcham and the pair closed to the saddle skirts of Abuse at the last 150 yards. But Foster's sprinter, who had been flirting here, went on and was easily first passing the judges. Bloss rode such a race as was common to Chicago race goers in the days when John McCafferty apparently just "fished in" his sprinter Creole. George H. Ketcham, ridden by J. Reiff, finished second, Abe Furst and he racing through the home stretch for the place. Newsgatherer and Libertine were away back in the order named. As little Reiff could not keep his horse straight,

George H. Ketcham bumped Abe Furst and for this Col. Clark disqualified him, giving Abe Furst second and Newsgatherer third money. The presiding judge said: "I didn't punish the boy, who did as well as he could. But he was not strong enough to keep his horse straight."

Then the corner of Banks Cregier's aggregation played excellently well a selection said to mean in Italian "Take Your Medicine" and the betting went merrily on for the fifth race for which Charley Christy was supposedly a cinch.

Lady Ellerslie ran in front until the last eighth, with the favorite second. Licalzi's mare was at this point still running easily one-half length in front of Charley Christy, upon whose ribs Tommy Burns was kicking hard, but McNickle is not used to "tight fits" and so the favorite got by him with 100 yards yet to go. Turner had laid off Candelaria two lengths behind the others, but at the half mile ground he got to Morte Fosse, and making a nice turn at the entry to the straight, waited patiently for a final rush. This he got in where it most counted and Candelaria, in a thrilling struggle, beat Charley Christy on the post. As from the bleaching boards the favorite's head could be seen to go up in the last strides, the cry arose "Chance for another foul," but the horses were placed as they finished, Morte Fosse bringing up the rear.

The day's amusement was brought to a close by a sensational happening. Judge Wilcox, leading the hunt at the head of the home stretch, was jumped on and cut down by April's Lady, the latter then being pulled up. Gay Parisienne came on in the lead, Foxnette pressing her closely, but at the last sixteenth Stamina came from behind and beat them both in a rousing finish. Elizabeth R. and Rosa Masso were well up.

The men of the race track have discovered in the lowly tomato a fruit superior for use in the heated term to the peach, plum, orange, pear or banana. On the fruit stand at Harlem there is a large tin pan filled with water and ice in which floats the tomatoes, which are sold for five cents each. Men with parched throats eagerly accept the chance of "cooling out" by eating these frozen tomatoes, and the vendor's reserve stock of the "love apples" is far greater in quantity than that of any other kind of fruit. J. E. Cushing shipped to St. Louis Thursday night. His stable nowadays is as nothing compared to that when Lookout, Boundless and Torrent were its stars, and Harry Shannon, Fonclif, Sunburst and the others are only fair selling platers.

Pat Dunne, when asked, "Are you going to Saratoga or elsewhere to race?" answered: "I shall stay in Chicago as far as I know at present."

La Salle, Barataria and Candelaria were posted on the bulletin board as each wearing two bar plates.

HORSES AT SARATOGA.

"Kelston," of the New York Morning Telegraph, has been inspecting the racing situation at Saratoga and here is what he has to say in Wednesday's edition about the outlook:

"Since Sunday I have made a tour of nearly all the stables, and while nearly all of our eastern horses have done well since their arrival at Horse Haven, the great majority of them look as if they wanted keying up a bit before they will show at their best. Trainers tell me that they have been handicapped by the condition of the track. On Monday morning it was certainly very rough going, and it was little wonder that trainers were afraid to do anything beyond three-quarter speed gallops. But with the har-

Time, 25, 51, 1:17, 1:45.

Winner—B. f. 4, by Galore—Queen's Own. Start good. Won easily. Her Own was easily the best. She outclassed the others on the speed basis and liked the sloppy going. Banquo got a bad and unlucky ride and was shut off on both turns. Charagrace liked the going and ran well for him. So did Concord. Scratched—Debride, 103.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 1:04.

Winner—Ch. c. St. Leonards—Carita. Start good. Won driving. St. Clair, saved the first part, finished strong under superior handling. Hapsburg was probably the best today. He liked the going, but was killed off pace-making with Sombre. Dr. Fitzsimmons' long suit is probably mud. He closed strong at the end and is on the improve. Sombre was only about half fit and was killed off at the post. She stopped to nothing after galloping three-eighths. Scratched—Tennith, 110; Wine Press, 107.

Time, 12, 24, 37, 49, 1:03, 1:17.

Winner—Br. f. by Tom Ochiltree—Lizzie Tabor. Start fair. Won eased up. Tabouret outclassed her field and was only galloping throughout. General Maceo was lucky and well handled. Bonadea, poorly ridden, was coming fast at the end. Ruby Lips is very faint hearted and quit badly after three-eighths had been covered. Scratched—High Priest, 108; Songster, 103; Frohman, 103; Fleeting Gold, 101.

Time, 24, 49, 1:03, 1:16, 1:45.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Sensation—Happy Day. Start good. Won eased up. Sensational galloped throughout and was pulled to a walk at the end. Continental ran well, but was outclassed at the weights. Hanwell, badly handled and shut off on the first turn, closed a big gap from the half. Lady Marian had no chance with her jockey, but ran well for a half. Scratched—Royal Stag, 126; Tripping, 105; Pink Chambray, 86.

7458 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances. The Spinster Stakes. $750 added.

Time, 12, 24, 37, 50, 1:03, 1:18.

Winner—Blk. f. by Watercross—Abilene. Start fair. Won driving. Fast Black closed steadily from the half after being outrun the first part. She is a fine filly over a distance and best on a fast track. Florence Breckenridge was off slowly and appeared unable to run in the mud, but came like a shot at the end and must be a good one. Whiplash was undoubtedly the best. She was galloping the first half and probably not keyed up for this race. Lindula and Sky Scraper revealed in the going. La Cheviot could not run in the mud. She wants a fast track and is a good filly. Scratched—Anagram, 119; Tender, 109; Tendresse, 109; Lepida, 109. Overweights—La Cheviot, 3 pounds. Corrected weight—Fast Black, 99.

7459 SIXTH RACE—1 1-8 Miles. $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 26, 52, 1:04, 1:18, 1:44, 1:58.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Kinglike—Revolt. Start fair. Won driving. King T. was probably best at the distance. He is fresh and improved and had unusual early speed. Doggett had an inferior ride, combined with bad luck throughout the race. Tinge ran well for seven-eighths. Marshall was short.

HORSES AT SARATOGA.

rows at work from 9 o'clock until noon and a drying wind in the afternoon, the going was wonderfully improved today, and by constant working it can be kept in fairly safe condition, although there is no doubt that the track really wants to be graded anew.

"There are already about 400 horses on hand. The following trainers are here with their strings: C. Boyle, W. Smith, T. J. Healey, P. Wimmer, J. D. Smith, L. Stuart, J. M. Morris, J. J. Marklein, W. Hogan, F. McCabe, F. Brown, T. Welch, "Matt" Allen, Henry Bondy, "Matt" Feakes, F. E. Gardner, W. Porter, W. Wallace, C. Hughes, S. T. Booker, Paul Miles, "Pat" Covellie, George Jennings, "Mike" Hogan, I. Griffin, George Miller, Henry Harris, Walter Rollins, W. Walker, "Lew" Elmore, J. F. Caldwell, J. Payling, "Alec" Covington and J. J. McCafferty.

"There are quite a few sick horses, but nearly all of them were on the sick list on their arrival. Henry Bondy's string of ten, the property of S. S. Brown, are all pretty sick, and the best 2-year-old in the lot died shortly after arriving at Horse Haven. She was full sister to that good mare Performance, by Troubadour-Matinee.

Momentum, in "Matt" Feakes' string, is on the shelf, having pulled up very lame a week ago. He is, however, on the mend, and it is to be hoped he will soon be wearing colors, as he is a bit more than useful.

"Armament, in Walter Rollins' string, has also been on the ailing list. Sir Walter looks well, but as yet has done nothing beyond good open galloping exercise.

Handball, in Frank McCabe's string, looks to have freshened up wonderfully, and the chances are that this Hanover horse may show his 2-year-old form before the season is much older.

"Of the 2-year-olds from the Metropolitan District, the most improved I have seen so far are Ahom, in W. Smith's string, and His Lordship, in J. D. Smith's string. Ahom, although in big muscular condition, has sharpened wonderfully, and the improvement in his action in front is surprising, as he now travels close to the ground, and with his long reach in front and great propelling power I look for this son of Sir Dixon and Roseville to be not only dangerous in the Futurity and other fall events, but his chances of developing into a grand racehorse next season seem to me only a question of health, as he is a sound, grand constituted colt.

"His Lordship, which is by Rayon d'Or, out of Sallie McClelland, has also come on wonderfully in the last three weeks, and the sharpening up process has certainly improved the appearance of this always good looking colt, and as there is no doubt as to his having a fine turn of speed it is little wonder that his owner and trainer feel rather sweet on the colt's chances for the Futurity. His fastest work so far has been five furlongs in 1:04 and six furlongs in 1:21. The intention is to send him to the post a couple of times before the close of the Saratoga meeting, so that something will be known of his calibre before Futurity day. Like Alarm, His Lordship is certainly a big, able, good looking colt, and looks all over the makings of a racehorse.

"S. Booker's Futurity candidates, Sanford and Dr. Parker, are also coming on in the right manner, Dr. Parker being perhaps the most improved of the two. But Sanford was so highly tried that both owner and trainer pin their faith to him as likely to be heard from in fall stake events.

Plaudit, in W. Hogan's string, has done well since his arrival here and looks to me as if he is a hundred pounds heavier than on Realization day. Geisha and Miss Miriam have also put on flesh. Indeed all of Hogan's horses look exceptionally well, and it is worthy of note that since the commencement of the season this young trainer has made an excellent record with the horses he has sent to the post. T. Welch's horses all look well and he will do to follow this meeting.

"Matt" Allen, who has been here for some time, is likely to be heard from shortly, as he has smartish 2-year-olds in his string. Thais, Placid, The Rose, Tranquil and The Bouncer are in good fettle and are very promising sorts. W. H. Clark, whose string Mr. Allen is handling, has purchased from McChesney & Co. the 3-year-old Banastar, and a very useful kind of horse he is.

Cass, Sloan is here, having been engaged to ride the Sydney Paget horses for the balance of the season. The latest stablites to arrive are those of E. S. Gardner and T. Ryan, which came in this morning.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Fouso—Miss Mary.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden; third and fourth driving to the limit. Sangamon far outclassed his field. He could hardly have been in a softer spot and won as he should, off by himself. He is a bad actor and was led to the post. After being saddled there he acted as well as any other horse. Carrie F. is a consistent filly. She always does her best. Ella Penzance was lucky to be third. She was tiring and Millie M. coming fast at the finish. The latter was off in a pocket and had a rough journey all the way. Amy Wade is not good now. May Fern looks well and ran a clever race. Incetatus is a rank coward. He stopped almost to a walk in the stretch. The winner was run up $100 over his entered price and bought in by his owner. La Salle wore two bar plates.
Scratched—Bryan, 104.
Overweights—Caius, 24 pounds; Miss Casey, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Candlemas or Hayden Edwards—Sudie McNairy.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third driving even harder. Batten was the best as the race was run. He got a good send off and took the short route. This is a good colt and is on edge. Canace suffered from poor handling. She was in a mix-up on the turn and was carried out. Espionage did not run her race. She broke on the outside and took the long route. Miss Marks finished fast. It was a funny sight to see little Reiff whipping this filly through the stretch. He had a good hold of her head and rode a good race. Considering this boy's size he is a clever rider. Boney Boy was raced into submission by Batten the first half.
Overweights—Boney Boy, 2 pounds.

7432 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. 3-year-olds. Selling. Purse $400; net value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Winner—B. c. by Candlemas—Goldie Cad.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a drive; second under punishment and out to the last ounce; third and fourth doing their best. Don Orsino was best handled. Riders reversed Found would have won. Burns hugged the rails and waited with Don Orsino until Found had raced herself to pieces and then came with a rush through the stretch. Don Orsino is a shifty colt and always deserves attention. McNickle perhaps made too much use of Found down the back stretch. The ride was not bad but a poorly judged one. St. Alfonses D. is consistent. He was right there all the way. Nathanson was running fast at the finish and would have been third in a few more strides. Pacemaker was sharply shut off on the first turn and badly ridden throughout. Throw his race out. The same applies to George Krats. Everett rode a poor race on this fellow. He was on the outside all the way. Barataria wore two bar plates and had no speed.

7433 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. $400 added; net value to winner $330; $10 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Disqualified for foul.
Winner—B. h. 5, by Plevna—Abukru.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won in a mild drive; the others were hard pressed. Abuse was the best and is in rare form. Bloss rides this fellow to perfection. The horse likes to race in front, and Bloss managed to get him there from the start. George H. Ketcham was a good horse in the race. With a stronger jockey he would have given Abuse a stout argument. Reiff did the best he could, but did not have strength enough to keep the gelding straight. Rounding the stretch turn the boy tried to use his whip, and in doing so dropped his horse's head and sharply interfered with ABE FURST. He straightened him out quickly and was catching Abuse at the end. The foul was plain and the decision strictly in line. Newgatherer and Libertine were always outrun. The pair were fighting it out for fourth place all the way.
Scratched—Farley, 94.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Midlothian—Cosette.
Off first break to a good start. It was a driving finish. Candelaria was lucky and well ridden, but possibly not the best. His win was somewhat of a scratch. Charley Christy was best today. When Burns got to and had Lady Ellerslie beaten he stopped driving and Candelaria, coming with a rush, stole the race right at the end. Burns having no other way of squaring himself for being beaten made a claim of foul. The claim was ignored. Candelaria is good and is a game horse. Lady Ellerslie ran an honest race. She seems to dislike a route but was right there at the finish. Morte FONSE was close up all the way and ran his race.
Overweights—Candelaria, 34 pounds.

Time, 1:24, 24 1/2, 49 1/4, 1:02 1/2, 1:08 1/2.
Winner—Ch. c. by Great Tom—Endurance.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after hard early punishment. Second and third were driving to the limit. Stamina was far the best and had to be to win. There was a whole lot of jostling and interference on the far turn. Burns on April's Lady was the cause of it. The filly jumped on and badly cut Judge Wilcox down. In the mix-up April's Lady almost fell and badly interfered with Stamina. The latter did not seem to have a possible chance of winning after that. Reiff went on though and by hard riding managed to get up. The colt is game and well named. Foxnette and Gay Parisienne profited by the interference. Had the latter been of much account she could have won. She was in a good position in the stretch but tired. Foxnette finished gamely. Judge Wilcox will have to be destroyed.
Scratched—Prince Harry, 110.
Overweights—Stamina, 2 pounds.

Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second and third also driving hard. Miss Miriam ran an extra good race and was at home in the deep going. Maceo came with a rush at the end. He ran a good race at the weights. Ben Hadad is not used to a deep track, but ran well and will do to follow. Hurly Burly had speed. Loiterer could not keep up. There is little class to him. NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selection and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
